This guide is not a legal document. Detailed eligibility requirements are available through the Citizenship Act and Regulations or through one of the CIC Call Centres. Programs or services may change with little notice; details should be verified with the Call Centre.

Overview

This application is for a person who is already a Canadian citizen, is residing in Canada and wants to obtain a citizenship certificate. Read this important information before you start filling out the form.

Please read the page “A guide to the documents you must send with this form” on page 7 to see if this application applies to you.

Whether you are applying to replace your citizenship certificate because the information on the certificate is out of date, or because the certificate has been damaged, stolen, lost or destroyed, you must return all original citizenship/naturalization certificates and any pink transmission copies that you still have. Failure to do so will result in delays in processing your application.

You could lose your present nationality or citizenship if you register as a Canadian citizen. You should ask the Embassy, High Commission or Consulate of the country of your present nationality if your status will be affected.

If you are a person who was born in wedlock outside Canada between January 1, 1947 and February 14, 1977 to a Canadian citizen mother and non Canadian father, you should fill in an Application for Canadian Citizenship under Paragraph 5(2)(b).

What you must send with this form

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| Fee | See page 5 for information on the current fee and method of payment. The fee is not refundable. If you have printed this application from the web site a receipt is not included. You must order an original receipt as shown on page 5 “ Citizenship fees ”. |
| Documents | Read the page “A guide to the documents you must send with this form”. Decide which one of the sections in the guide applies to you. Please note special instructions for baptismal certificates, birth certificates and marriage certificates issued by the government of Quebec prior to January 1, 1994. If the documents you are submitting are certified true copies (first certificate), an authorized person must swear or affirm that the copies are true copies of the originals. An authorized person can be a commissioner of oaths, a notary public or a justice of the peace. Note: If supporting documents are not in English or French you must supply the document, a translation of the document and an affidavit from the person who completed the translation. Translations by family members are not acceptable. Failure to include the necessary documents will result in delays in processing your application. Please note that additional documents may be required during the processing of your application. |
| Photographs | Your photo will appear on your wallet-size citizenship certificate. You must provide 2 citizenship photos taken within the last 12 months. Take the form called “Citizenship Photograph Specifications” included in this application kit to the photographer to make sure you get the correct size photos. When you have your photos taken, do not wear a head covering unless you wear one because of your religion. When you pick up the photos at the photographer, check to make sure the size of the photos is correct and the back of the photo is dated and identified by the photographer. |

Signature on both application and photos

Adults and children 14 years of age and older must sign the application and photos.

The signature on your application and your photos must match.

Sign your name in black or blue ink, in the white signature area below each photo, in the same manner as you would other official documents. Do not print.

Children 13 years of age and younger, leave the signature strip blank. Parents please print the child's name on the back of the photos.

Put both signed photos in the small envelope provided with this form. Do not staple, glue or otherwise attach the photos directly to the application.

Application printed from the web site.

Please note that if you have printed the application from the web site, there is no photo envelope provided. Therefore, we ask that you provide your own envelope for each set of photos.

Citizenship fees

What fees are required?

You must pay a Processing Fee when you submit an application for proof of citizenship.

Processing fee: $75 per person

Are fees refundable?

Processing Fee

The processing fee is not refundable. The processing fee will not be refunded, regardless of the final decision, once the Case Processing Centre has started processing the application.

How do I calculate the fees required?

Step 1: Use this chart to calculate the fees required

	PROCESSING FEE	Number of Persons	Amount per Person	Amount Due
	PROOF OF CITIZENSHIP		x $75
Total				$

Step 2: Fill out one receipt form (IMM 5401) for yourself and other members of your family if you are applying at the same time.

An original receipt must be used; a photocopy is not acceptable. You can order an original receipt from our Web Site at <http://www.cic.gc.ca> or contact a Call Centre agent.

Step 3: Insert the 'Total' on line 09 Citizenship or Immigration Services Fees.

Do not complete the top two portions of the receipt; these will be completed by the financial institution.

Step 4: Complete the 'Payer Information' sections on the reverse of the receipt.

If you already have an open file and know the client identification number that we have assigned to you, enter the number in the box provided for that purpose. If not, leave that box empty.

Step 5: Bring the receipt and your payment to the financial institution.

Do not make payment using the automated teller machines.

What if I make an incorrect payment?

If you are required to pay additional fees, the Case Processing Centre will send you a form (IMM 5412) which will indicate the amount required for correct payment. Not paying the correct fee will result in a delay in finalizing your application. This payment must also be paid at a designated financial institution.

If you have paid too much, your application will be processed and the amount of the overpayment will be refunded.

A cheque will be issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada as soon as possible.

Where can the fees be paid?

Payment can be made at most financial institutions in Canada. Check with financial institutions in your area.

Note: There is no banking charge to pay. The service is free.

What can I use to pay the fees?

The financial institution will let you know what form of payment it considers acceptable. Please note that personal cheques and travellers' cheques are not acceptable.

What if there is no local financial institution which will accept payment?

In this situation, you may pay the fees by mail. Call a Call Centre agent for instructions.

What does the financial institution do?

The financial institution will accept your payment. The financial institution will stamp and insert the amount paid in the upper two portions of the receipt. You will receive the top two portions of the receipt. Make sure you are given these and that they have been stamped and completed before you leave the financial institution.

Note: Do not present your application to the financial institution, only your receipt.

What do I do after I have paid the fees?

Retain the top portion (Copy 1 – Client's copy) of the receipt which you have been given for your records. Attach the middle portion (Copy 2 – To be sent by client to Citizenship and Immigration Canada) to your completed application and mail it to the Case Processing Centre. DO NOT SEND ANY OTHER FORM OF PAYMENT WITH YOUR APPLICATION.

Documents you must send with your form

Choose the one section that applies to you.

If this application is for your first citizenship certificate, please provide originals or clear and legible certified copies of your documents. If this application is for a replacement of your citizenship certificate, clear and legible photocopies of your documents are acceptable. Failure to submit the required document will result in delays in the processing of your application

Note: Baptismal certificates, birth certificates and marriage certificates issued by the government of Quebec before January 1, 1994 are no longer accepted for issuing a proof of Canadian citizenship. This applies to applications for replacement of your certificate as well as first time applications for certificates. New documents will be required from the government of Quebec for yourself, your parent or your husband to establish proof of citizenship and you must include original or certified copies with your application.

For more information on obtaining a valid document, you should contact the office of the Registrar of Civil Status of Quebec at one of the following numbers: Québec - (418) 643-3900, Montréal - (514) 864-3900, elsewhere in the province - 1-800-567-3900. Information can also be obtained by visiting their Web site at www.etatcivil.gouv.qc.ca.

If you have a certificate of registration of birth abroad, a citizenship certificate, or you are applying to replace your certificate, you must send:

- all original citizenship/naturalization certificate(s) and any pink transmission copies
- two pieces of personal identification, such as a driver's license, and a health insurance card
- other documents, such as a marriage certificate and/or legal name change certificate, divorce decree, birth certificate(if applicable)

If you have never had a citizenship certificate, and you were born in Canada, you must send:

- a birth certificate
- two pieces of personal identification, such as a driver's license and a health insurance card
- other documents, such as a marriage certificate and/or legal name change certificate (if applicable)

If you were born outside Canada to a Canadian parent before February 15, 1977, you must send:

- a birth certificate which lists your parents (issued by responsible government authorities in the country where you were born)
- proof that your natural father (or your natural mother, if your parents were not married before your birth) was a Canadian citizen when you were born, i.e. your parents' Canadian birth certificate or Canadian citizenship certificate
- your parents' marriage certificate
- two pieces of personal identification, such as a driver's license and a health insurance card
- other documents, such as your marriage certificate and/or legal name change certificate (if applicable)

If you were born outside Canada to a Canadian parent on/ or after February 15, 1977, you must send:

- a birth certificate which lists your parents (issued by government authorities in the country where you were born)
- proof that one or both of your parents was a Canadian citizen when you were born (for example, citizenship certificate or Canadian birth certificate)
- two pieces of personal identification, such as a driver's license and a health insurance card
- other documents, such as your marriage certificate and/or legal name change certificate (if applicable)

If you were a British subject who lived in Canada for 20 years immediately before 1947, you must send:

- a birth certificate (issued by authorities in the country where you were born)
- two pieces of personal identification, such as a driver's license and a health insurance card
- for women only: details of your husband's nationality at the time of your marriage
- other documents, such as marriage certificate and or legal name change certificate (if applicable)

If you are a British subject who lived in Canada as a landed immigrant for at least 5 years (but less than 20) before 1947, you must send:

- your birth certificate (issued by government authorities in the country where you were born)
- proof of admission to Canada as a landed immigrant (immigration document or British passport you used when you originally entered Canada)
- two pieces of personal identification, such as a driver's license, and a health insurance card
- for women only: details of your husband's nationality at the time of your marriage
- other documents, such as marriage certificate and/or legal name change certificate (if applicable)

If you are a woman who was married to a Canadian and who entered Canada as a landed immigrant before 1947, you must send:

- your birth certificate (issued by government authorities in the country of birth)
- your marriage certificate
- proof of your husband's Canadian citizenship
- proof of your admission to Canada as a landed immigrant (immigration document or British passport you used when you originally entered Canada)
- two pieces of personal identification, such as a driver's license and a health insurance card
- other documents, such as marriage certificate and or legal name change certificate (if applicable)

If you are a woman, Canadian-born or a British subject, who lost her British subject status by marriage before 1947, you must send:

- your birth certificate (issued by authorities in the country where you were born)
- your marriage certificate
- proof of your husband's foreign nationality at time of marriage
- two pieces of personal identification, such as a driver's license, and a health insurance card
- other documents, such as legal name change certificate (if applicable)

How to complete the form

COMPLETING THE APPLICATION FORM

Follow the instructions carefully. Delays will result if the application is not properly completed.

If you need more space to answer any questions please use an extra sheet.

FOLLOW THESE STEP BY STEP INSTRUCTIONS

Section 1

You must indicate whether you would like service in English or French.

Section 2

- You must indicate if you have ever had a previous Canadian citizenship certificate.
- If yes, you must write down the surname/last name, given name(s), certificate number and date citizenship was acquired.
- You must also indicate whether you are applying to update your certificate, or to replace it.
- If you are applying to replace your certificate you must indicate if it was stolen, lost or destroyed, and you must indicate if the theft/loss was reported to the police.
- You must write details of the theft/loss/destruction in the area provided.

Whether you are applying to replace or update your certificate you must return any Canadian citizenship certificates in your possession. Failure to do so will result in delays in processing your application.

Section 3

- Write down your surname/last name and given name(s) as you wish them to appear on your certificate.

If this is the first time you are applying for a citizenship certificate, the name on your citizenship certificate will be the same as the one shown on your birth certificate, Record of Landing (IMM 1000) or foreign passport, unless you have legally changed it after arriving in Canada. A legal name change must be supported by a copy of an approved amendment to your Record of Landing, or a provincial legal change of name document or a provincial adoption order.

If you are applying to replace your citizenship certificate, the name will be the same as shown on your previously issued certificate. If you want a different name on your certificate, you will be required to supply additional documents to support your request.

If the change you want is minor, provide a provincial health card, driver's license or an official school record issued by the provincial department responsible for education, reading exactly the same as the name you are requesting.

If this change is significant, linking documentation showing the use of both old and new names, or the basis for the change, will be required as well as the provincial document. Examples of linking documents include a marriage certificate, a legal change of name, an adoption order, a divorce decree, or a foreign passport showing both names.

Please note that you cannot request a name change after your application has been submitted to Sydney, Nova Scotia.

- If you have used other names in the past, or are known by a name other than the one you listed above, write them in the space provided. (Other names can include your birth name, nicknames, call names, community name, etc.) You can use a separate piece of paper if required.

Section 4

A. Write down your date of birth.

If you are applying for your first certificate, use the date of birth shown on your birth certificate.

If you are applying for a replacement certificate, use the date of birth from your previous certificate.

If the date of birth on your citizenship certificate is incorrect, you may request an amended date of birth; however, you will be asked to provide additional documents. This may result in delays in processing your application.

If the date of birth on your first certificate was based on your Record of Landing (IMM 1000), you will be asked to obtain an amendment to your Record of Landing (IMM 1436).

To obtain this document, contact a Call Centre (page two of the instructions) and ask for a “IMM 5218 kit”, which will include an application to amend your Record of Landing (IMM 1436).

Do not send your application for a replacement citizenship certificate until you have received a response to your request. When you have received your response from Immigration, please include it with your application (additional documentation may also be required; in which case, you will be contacted at a later date).

If you are requesting to change your date of birth, and you obtained your first certificate using a birth document, you must provide an amended birth document issued by the originating Province or Country (additional documentation will also be required, and you will be contacted at a later date).

B. Write down your place and country of birth

C. Indicate whether you are male or female, how tall you are, the colour of your eyes and your legal marital status. We need this information for our records. The colour of your eyes and height will be shown on your citizenship certificate.

Section 5

If you are a woman and married before January 1, 1947;

- write down your husband's surname/last name, given name(s) and his date and place of birth.
- write down the country you were married in and the date of your marriage.
- indicate if your husband is a Canadian citizen, and if he is, provide the details.
- write down the number from your husband's citizenship card, if he has one, and the date he acquired citizenship.

Section 6

- You must indicate if you are a citizen of one or more countries other than Canada. If yes, write down the country or countries and show the date and how you obtained the citizenship.
- You must indicate if you have left Canada for 1 year or longer before 1977. If yes, write down the dates you were away, the country you went to and the reason you went to that country.

Section 7

- List the telephone number(s) where you can be reached. We may need to contact you by phone.
- Provide your current home address, complete with postal code.
- If your mailing address is different from your home address, include your mailing address, complete with postal code.

Section 8

You must complete Section 8 if:

You were born in Canada and are applying for your first certificate or

You were born outside of Canada and your parent was a Canadian citizen at the time of your birth

- Show the relationship of your parent(s) by indicating Natural or Adoptive.
- Write down your parent(s) surname/last name, given name(s), date of birth and place of birth.
- Write down where your parents were married (if applicable) and the date of the marriage.
- Write down how your parent(s) obtained Canadian citizenship.
- Indicate if your parent(s) have left Canada for more than 1 year before 1977. If yes, write the dates they were away and the country they were in.
- Indicate if your parent(s) is or was a citizen of a country other than Canada. If yes, write the details showing the country, date and how the citizenship was obtained.
- Indicate if your parent(s) was employed in Canada by a foreign government or international agency. If yes, provide details.
- If your parents were born in Canada, indicate if one of his or her parents were employed by a foreign government or international agency. If yes, provide details.

Section 9

- Indicate if you are claiming Canadian citizenship by birth outside Canada to a Canadian parent.
- Indicate if you have entered Canada. If yes, write down the date you entered.
- Indicate if you were born outside of Canada between January 1, 1947 and February 14, 1977, to a Canadian father in wedlock or to a Canadian mother out of wedlock. If yes, indicate if you wish to apply for delayed registration of birth abroad.
- Indicate if you were a British subject living in Canada before 1947. If yes, write down the date you entered Canada.

Section 10

- You must sign the application if you are 14 years of age and older. Sign the application using the signature you currently use on other official documents. Write down the place and date.
- If the application is for a person 13 years of age and under, it must be signed by a parent/guardian in the space provided. Write down the place and date.
- If you are 14 years of age and older you must also sign the bottom of each of the photos with the same signature used on the application and on other official documents.

If the application is not signed and dated, it will be returned to you.

Once you have completed all the sections of your application, mail it to the CPC Sydney address found on page 4 of these instructions.

Where to send your application

On the envelope to mail your application, print:

Your Name
Your Address
Your Postal Code

Case Processing Centre - Sydney - Proof
P.O. Box 10000
SYDNEY NS B1P 7C1

- Print your name and address in the top left corner of the envelope.

If you are sending more than one application (for example, applications for family members), you must send one receipt to cover all applications. Mail the receipt and all applications together in one envelope. That way, they will be processed together.

What happens next?

You will receive a letter acknowledging receipt of your application

Once your application has been received in Sydney it will be reviewed and processing will begin.

Some applications may encounter delays or require a more extended time period for processing. In these cases you will be contacted for more information or asked to supply additional documents.

WARNING: If you send us an application that has any misleading or fraudulent information on it, you can be charged with a criminal offence, and you may be subject to criminal prosecution in a court.

Citizenship and Immigration Canada has a quality assurance program. In this program, some applications are randomly selected for special review. The review means that you might be called to an interview with a Citizenship and Immigration official, so that we can make sure that all the documents you gave us are correct, and that your application was completed properly. The interview is very short, and should not result in any delay to the processing of your application.

REMEMBER: You must advise us of any change of address or telephone number by calling a Call Centre or by entering your new address on the web site <http://www.cic.gc.ca> and then clicking on the “On-line Service - Change of Address” feature.

CITIZENSHIP PHOTOGRAPH SPECIFICATIONS

Notes to the applicant

TAKE THIS PAGE WITH YOU TO THE PHOTOGRAPHER

- Citizenship photographs are not the same as passport photographs.

Notes to the photographer

Please make sure that you provide:

- 2 identical photographs (black and white or colour) produced from the same untouched negative, or exposed simultaneously by a split-image or multi-lens camera;
- the name of the photographer or the studio, the studio address and the date the photos were taken on the back of the photographs.

The photographs must:

- show a full front view of the person's head centered in the middle of the photograph;
- have a plain white background;
- have a plain white signature strip (no more than 10mm and no less than 6mm deep) at the bottom;
- be produced on single weight matte paper.

The photographs must measure:

- 35mm x 53mm finished size;
- between 25mm and 35mm from chin to crown.

Applicants 14 years of age and over must sign within the white signature strip below each photo.
For applicants 13 years of age and under leave signature strip blank. Parent must NOT sign child's photo.

Your signature must fit entirely within the white signature strip that appears at the bottom of your photographs. Your photographs will be returned to you if any portion of your signature extends outside the white strip.
